MISS CLARE SWARTZ

Behind every project there is someone who bears the responsibility of its success. So, in the making of this magazine, there has been such a sponsor to advise, direct, and inspire us, the members of the staff. That person is Miss Clare E. Swartz of the faculty. It was she who urged us to be ambitious, made us face facts when we were too enterprising, and inspired us to a high level of excellence.

A graduate of Wellesley College, Miss Swartz has also spent a year at the University of Chicago. She has taught in high school and college in the South, has traveled widely in the West, in Europe, and the Orient. From the varied background of her training and experience she has given to us generously. We are fully aware of the help she has rendered us in the making of this magazine and take this occasion to thank her.

If these lines appear in the magazine, it is only because they have escaped her modest eye.

—The Staff.

FOOTBALL, 1924

The football year in 1924 was very successful for Shore. The first year in the Greater Cleveland Conference brought new glory and honor, and put Shore in the limelight more than in any other year.

Before the season began Shore was doped to win last place, or sixth at the most. The critics knew little of us. A green team and a new coach usually are not very favorable to a team's prospects. However, Coach "Ma" George Burkett and the boys of his squad set out to show the critics and the fans of Cleveland that there was such a place as Shore, and that it was an important place. And they did it!

A hard working team and a hard working coach brought Shore up to an enviable position in the conference. Good clean playing, hard fighting, and fine team-work gained respect and honor beyond all that Shore had seen before.

First and foremost among the players was Captain Jerry Gleitz. Playing his last year for Shore, he was one of the outstanding stars of the conference. His all around pass-work, his running, and his kicking were known and feared all over the circuit. All opposing teams tried to stop him, but couldn't. He scored in every game but the one with John Marshall, and was the second highest point scorer of the conference. Needless to say, Jerry will be sadly missed next year.

Other seniors on the team were "Stan" Kirchner, Joe Kremm, "Monk" Watkins, and Sam Disantis. The first three mentioned were playing their second or third year for Shore, and made their last one the best. All were regulars, and were noted for their aggressive spirit and clean sportsmanship. Sammy, tho a new-comer, soon won his way into the hearts of all loyal Shoreites, and demonstrated his right to a place on the team. His work in the Marshall and Shaker games secures him an everlasting place in Shore's Hall of Fame.

Other players who won the green "S" are Dick Timms, John Bestgen, Hack McGrath, "Curly" Jackson, Tony Skubic, John Kleifield, and Hubert Watkins. All showed sterling qualities, and we can rest assured that with these men to carry on the cause of Shore and win new fame and glory, the future of Shore football is very bright. Among the substitutes, Bill Gill, Roxy Montana, and Tony Yurglic deserve mention as promising men next year. Some praise should also be given to John Luikart, the manager. He was always on the field, rain or shine, and his assistance to the coach and to the team was invaluable.

OUR COACH

Last fall we received a noteworthy addition to our teaching staff when George "Ma" Burkett came here from Ohio University to be our new coach. He got to work as soon as school started, and soon showed the football squad that he knew his business. He made a good, almost a championship team, out of a squad of green rookies and a few veterans.

But it was in basketball that "Coach" starred. With even less letter men than in football, he succeeded in putting together a real winning combination, and then gave them the fighting spirit and confidence in themselves that carried them thru to a well-deserved championship, even tho it was a tie.

A large part of our teams' success was due to "Ma", with his fighting spirit, his tireless energy, and his knowledge of sports. Three cheers for Coach Burkett, and may he be with us long!

BASKETBALL, 1925

Shore's basketball season, like the football season, was a success, only more so. The boys knew that hard work was necessary to make a good showing, so when the call for basketball players went out, a large squad reported to Coach Burkett. This squad was soon cut to about 20 players and then the real work began. After the fundamentals came some new plays, and team-work was stressed as being very important. By the time the season opened the first string men were in good condition, and arearin' to go. West Commerce, Longwood, Euclid (non-conference), Rocky River, and Euclid again were met and defeated in rapid succession. Then we were upset by John Marshall. By defeating Shaker Heights the following week we finished in a tie for the championship of the Greater Cleveland Conference.

Hard work, the desire to win, good support by loyal Shoreites and the dandy new suits combined to make a very successful season. Shore has every reason to be proud of her record this year, and can look forward to a very successful year next year, as only one regular, Sammy Disantis, and one sub, Homer Watkins, leave us. Sammy was a star all year, was high point scorer in conference for Shore, and was picked on the all-conference team. Monk was unfortunate in having serious illness keep him out of basketball practice early in the season and this was probably what kept him on the bench most of the time.

Dick Timms, our captain, was another star, and was also picked on the all-conference team. Dick is an all-round man but his responsibilities as captain seemed to interfere with his work on the team this year, and his playing suffered.

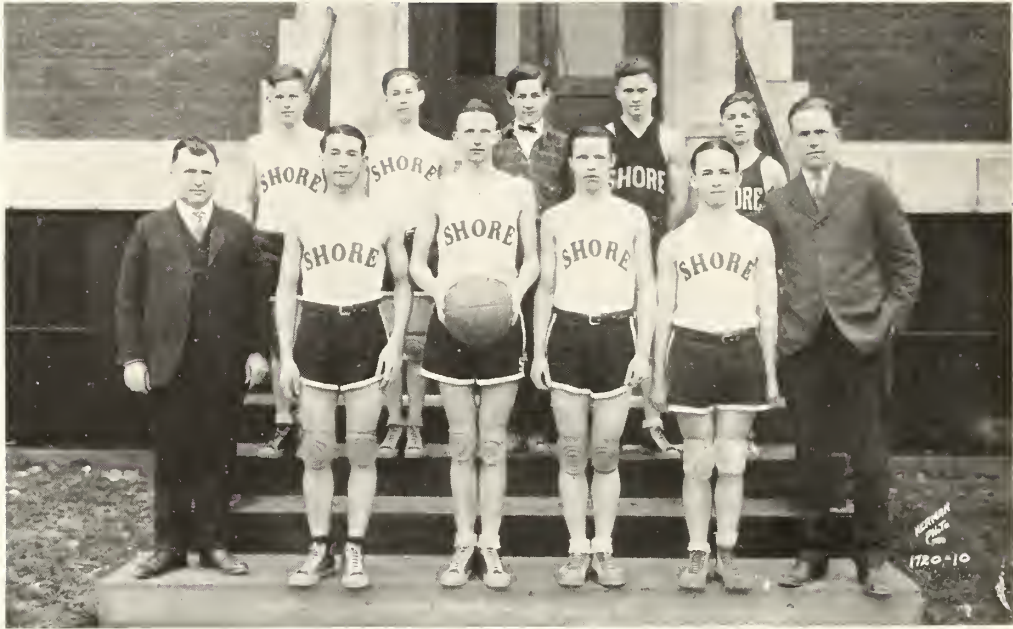

Hack McGrath, Tony Skubic, and Edward Osborne complete the list of Shore's stars. All were good players, and all should improve in the years to come. Shore is lucky in having such men to count on in the future. Oh, yes, there are two substitutes, Johnny Kleifield and "Stub" Bob Jennings. Both showed up well when they got a chance to play. We might also mention that shortly after the season began Carl Brigleb was elected manager and Kenneth Vogel assistant manager. Kenneth will be the full-fledged manager next year.

OUR SECOND TEAM

At the beginning of the season the conference officials decided to schedule second team games with the first teams. Accordingly our second team also played before us. They made a poor start, but finished in a blaze of glory, defeating Euclid, John Marshall, and Shaker Heights. The second team contained the following players: Hubert Watkins, Jim Brazee, Kenneth Waterbury, Roxy Montana, Bill Haw, John Luikart, Tony Yurglic, and Bill Gill. All should be real stars next year.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The girls' basketball season this year was not as bright as it might have been, not because the girls didn't try hard, but because the quality of the opposing teams was too high. Every time the Shore girls met a team in their own class, it was a massacre, and the Shore squaws didn't get the worst of it. Mayfield was one team that met this sad fate. Spencerian was another. A tie game with Chagrin Falls was well-earned, and should have resulted in a Shore victory. Outside of these three games Shore met defeat at every turn.

Captain Win Meyers played a fine game all year, as did forwards Eleanor Howard and Alice Smith. Their greatest trouble seemed to be in locating the basket. Red Clymer made a good jumping center, and Ruth Hermle and Rose Montana were very capable guards, but had lapses of ineffectiveness. Substitutes Nan Colquhoun, Rosy Pilla, Marguerite LaVoie, Elizabeth Moffet, and one or two others were always ready to go in and play their heads off when they got the chance. Nan seems to be the most promising one of the bunch. Win Myers, Eleanor Howard, Ruth Hermle, Rose Montana, and Rosy Pilla leave us this year.

LITERARY SOCIETIES

PERMANENT AWARDING OF SILVER CUP THIS YEAR AFTER THREE YEARS OF CONTESTING

Three years ago our literary societies, the Delphics and the Shoronians, planned to compete for a silver cup to be awarded after three annual contests. The name of the winning society and the names of the individual winners were to be engraved each year on the cup.

In the spring of 1923 the first contest was held. At that time Mary Tryon was president of the Delphics, and Kathleen Hamilton president of the Shoronians. The Delphics were the first victors. The following persons were individual winners of that contest:

- | | |
|------------------------------|---------------------------|
| Mary BrazeeS. | Raymond SmithS. |
| Katherine CurtisD. | Mary TryonD. |
| Ruby LordenS. | Emmett WeihsD. |

The next year an innovation was introduced in the form of preliminary contests during the year. The society winning the most points was to be awarded one point toward the final contest. Ruby Lorden was elected president of the Shoronians, and Caesar Strasbourger, president of the Delphics. The Shoronians successful in the preliminaries, won the second final contest. The individual winners were the following:

- | | |
|-----------------------------|----------------------------|
| Mary BrazeeS. | La Verne OlsenD. |
| Ruby LordenS. | William PoeseS. |
| Dorothy LovejoyS. | Louis TankardD. |

This last year Irene Aitken was elected president of the Delphics and Winifred Myers president of the Shoronians. Preliminary contests were held throughout the year, the Shoronians being victorious and thus earning one point toward the final contest. On March 27 of this year the final and deciding contest was held. Plenty of excitement attended it. The Shoronians came out ahead and being victors twice out of the three years, were awarded permanent ownership of the cup. The individual winners were the following:

- | | |
|------------------------------|----------------------------|
| Irene AitkenD. | La Verne OlsenD. |
| Letcher HutchinsS. | Louis TankardD. |
| Goldie KovacicS. | |

Two members of the faculty have been largely responsible for the splendid work of the literary societies. They are Miss Mitchell who sponsored the Delphics, and Miss Douth who sponsored the Shoronians.

When we sophomores entered Senior High at Shore, our virtues were recognized by no one. But the upper classmen set us a good example to follow and our kind and understanding teachers led us into the right paths of learning.

Our class then became organized with the help of Miss Swartz, our class advisor.

Soon came football and basketball to claim our wandering interest and we were the witnesses of many victorious games. Some of us became more than spectators and found our way to the sub's bench or to the second teams.

Our freshman year ended with a feeling of independence that was fairly won.

In our sophomore year we lost no time in finding our places in the organizations and activities of the school. We were not only interested in the winnings of sport championships but also in the Glee Clubs, the Orchestra and Literary Societies. Miss Mitchell was elected sponsor.

We are still contesting for the highest place in our studies. We hope that our class will increase in wisdom, spirit, enthusiasm and loyalty, so that after we have finished school we shall be proud to say that we were members of the class of 1927.
